

Background: Lifeline of Ohio is an independent, non-profit organ procurement organization (OPO) whose purpose is to promote and coordinate the donation of human organs and tissues for transplantation.

Mission: Lifeline of Ohio's mission is to save and heal lives through the gift of donation.

Oversight: Lifeline of Ohio is federally designated by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) to facilitate the donation process in Central and Southeastern Ohio and two counties in West Virginia. As a licensed tissue bank, Lifeline of Ohio's tissue recovery services are regulated by the Food and Drug Administration. Lifeline of Ohio is a member of the United Network of Organ Sharing, a government-chartered nationwide network operating under HHS. (www.unos.org).

Founded: Established in 1984, Lifeline of Ohio is one of four organ procurement organizations in Ohio.

Service Area: Lifeline of Ohio is designated by HHS to serve 38 counties in Central and Southeastern Ohio, and Hancock and Wood counties in West Virginia.

Headquarters: 770 Kinnear Road, Columbus, OH 43212

Main (614) 291-5667
Fax (614) 291-0660

General Information (800) 525-5667
www.lifelineofohio.org

Officers:

Andrew Mullins	Chief Executive Officer
Jeremy Daughtery	Medical Advisory Board Chairperson
Jeff Klingler	Board Chair

Services: Lifeline of Ohio provides donation and procurement services to more than 90 hospitals and facilities. Our professional staff is available around-the-clock to evaluate, manage, recover, preserve, allocate and transport organs, corneas and tissues for transplantation. Additionally, we provide hundreds of community education programs to schools, civic groups and businesses each year.

Employees: 222 as of January 2025

Major Partners: 97 hospitals and facilities, 2 transplant centers and a population of nearly 4 million within our service area.